Information on your stay

Discover and experience the beautiful sides of the city of Aachen

Bread and rolls service on site

Daily between 8:15 a.m. and 8:45 a.m.

Tourist information "Aachen at a glance", Informative details on the town district ofurtscheid and other information are found at the outer walls of our wood cabins.

On the campsite dogs are allowed on a lead. You can take dogs for a walk in the adjacent "Gillesbachtal" – Don't forget to take dog waste bags with you.

Shower: 1 Euro coin for 5 minutes hot water.

Besides general terms and conditions and the regulations of use, our information board also shows important telephone numbers, an overview of camping accessories and a bus line network plan.

Please do not throw waste bags away unsorted! Container for plastics, glass, paper and residual waste are found on the left side of the exit.

A disposal column (St-San) for waste water and waste-holding tanks is located at the exit.

Barbecue place: We recommend you our barbecue corner. Please keep the grill and the hut clean for subsequent users. Thank you.

No matter, if you want to walk to the bus stop [0.4 km], to the local pedestrian zone [0.8 km] or to the city centre of Aachen [2.3 km], you first go down the "Branderhofer Weg" to the right.

With the bus lines 11, 21, 31, 36, 46, 51 and SB 63 you reach the city centre within about 10 minutes in short time intervals.

With the "Wellness-Ticket" you can take the bus line 51 for a relaxed ride to the Carolus Thermen [open from 9:00 a.m. – 11:00 p.m.] After 2.5 hours thermal bath [Sat., Sun., Fri. additional payment] relaxation is guaranteed and the bus easily takes you back to your destination. Tickets can be bought directly from the bus driver.

If you have not met our groundkeeper before you leave, please pay the user charge by putting it into one of the envelopes prepared for this purpose. Thank you.

The seal of quality stands for a high quality promise, which is awarded in accordance with a detailed catalogue of criteria and examined on an annual basis. More information under: www.top-platz.de
